Dear Parents/Carers and Children,

Celebrations!

On many Fridays, when there is not a Class Assembly with parents invited, we have Celebration Assemblies where children from each year group share some their learning and we present Head Teachers' Awards, Play Leaders Awards and other special certificates. Here are last Friday's assemblies in action:

Live Fully, Laugh Often, Learn Deeply,
Love as God Loves You and Let Your Light Shine

All things musical!

It's always a pleasure to hear pupils playing.
Here's Ethan at the end of the celebration assembly.

Meet Harley – she is our new percussion teacher, who will soon be teaching on a new electric kit (which will not be so loud in the courtyard!).

Tobias is doing well!

FS are learning about traditional tales, and they almost always have a performance poem to learn and act out.

Great work FS!

SPORTSHALL ATHLETICS

On Monday morning, at the Chelmsford Sports and Athletics Centre, twenty KS2 children took part in the Sportshall Athletics competition encompassing a mixture of track and field events. After accumulating a score of 242 points, Bishops' finished 1st place and now have an anxious wait to see if it'll be enough to qualify for the county final.

The following day, we took eight Year 2 children to the Sportshall Athletics. The children all worked really hard, impressing us with their running, jumping and throwing skills. They worked brilliantly as a team and we were very proud of them. Overall we came in 12th place.

GREAT WORK!

A very well done to Caitlin for her Kip McGrath Award!.. and to Bella and Isla for these beautiful name cards!

02 Young Voices

If your child is attending the O2 on Monday 20th January then please be reminded that they can arrive in school at 10am the following day (Tuesday 21st). Please either drop your child off at normal time OR at 10am, not in-between! Thank you.

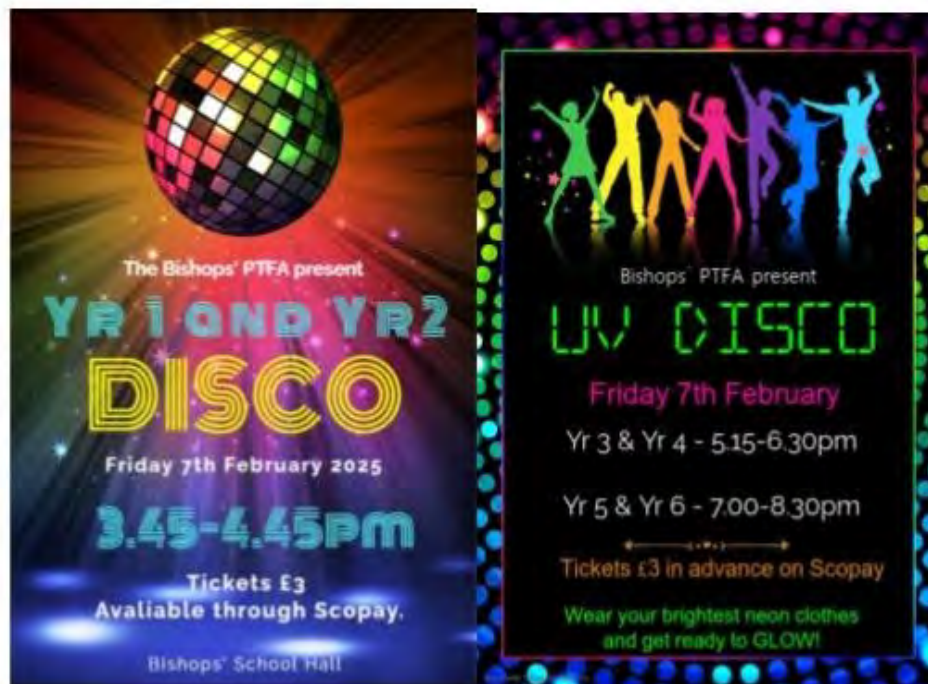

We wish you all a good weekend!

Thank you, as ever, for your ongoing support and all the encouragement you give to your children.
